

ROBERT CLANCY MEDIA QUESTIONS:

Hitchhiker's Guide to the Soul:

What inspired you to write the Hitchhiker's Guide to the Soul?

Legendary actor Hugh O'Brian wrote the foreword for your first book. How are you connected with Hugh?

Tell us about "soul hitches" which you refer to in your book.

Through your bite sized stories you take us through many deep and varied emotions, which is your favorite story?

You have given new meaning to LOVE through a unique acronym for the word - can you elaborate?

Daily Downloads and Fortune Cookies from the Universe:

Your titles are very unique and your writings feel Divinely guided, tell us how these downloads come to you?

Do you recommend that readers go through the book cover to cover first, or just open randomly for their daily inspiration?

Are the nuggets of wisdom in this book what have fueled your huge success on Facebook?

Which is your favorite thought in this book?

Volunteerism:

What is your definition of volunteerism?

I understand you began volunteering at age six. Please tell us about that experience?

People often say they don't have time to volunteer, especially busy professional. How do you suggest people consciously make time to volunteer?

Volunteering and helping others is an important aspect of your life. Do you think reading your books can inspire others to do the same?

Spiritual Experience:

Tell us about your life-changing spiritual experience at age 19?

When and with whom did you share this experience?

Do you recommend that everyone meditate?

You have a natural compassion and deep regard for others. Who has had the most influence on your life regarding this?

Business:

You're the managing partner and co-founder of Spiral Design Studio. Do you run your company based on the inspirational teachings in your books?

How has that affected your employee and customer relations?

What can someone do in their career to make a positive difference within their company?

What's an example of something our audience could do to positively affect a stranger's life?

Personal:

You are a devoted husband and father. Does your family join you in your spiritual practice and volunteering activities?

I understand you are a 5th degree master black belt martial arts instructor. How long have you been practicing martial arts? How have your life experiences affected how you train your students?

You are ordained as a minister, what motivated you to do this?

The Future:

What can you share with us about your upcoming book, with the working title Soul Cyphers – Decoding a Life of Hope and Happiness?

What are you talking about when you mention Reverse Climbs?

Can you share a couple of what you refer to as Decodes?

I understand you are inviting the public to share their inspiration stories with you. Can we look forward to sequels to your Hitchhiker's Guide to the Soul book?

What is your website and how can our audience be in touch with you?